Event Report
Amrut Vatika (Tree Plantation)

Theme	Green Maharashtra Campaign
Date	10 th August, 2023
Organised by	NSS Unit and Mothe Kadwan (NSS adopted village)
Objectives	The event aimed to promote environmental awareness, encourage afforestation, and contribute towards a greener future.
Beneficiaries	Community, environment and Bio-diversity
Highlights	The National Service Scheme (N.S.S.) unit of Loknete Manikrao Gavit College, Visarwadi, successfully organized a tree plantation drive named ' Amrut Vatika ' in Mothe Kadwan village. The Principal of the college instructed volunteers, emphasizing the importance of trees in maintaining ecological balance and combating climate change. The village Sarpanch also extended her support and encouraged community participation in the initiative. More than 50 saplings of native tree species were planted in designated areas on Gavthan of the village. Students actively participated in the plantation process, ensuring proper soil preparation, watering, and protective measures for the saplings. The N.S.S. volunteers pledged to take care of the planted trees to ensure their healthy growth.
Outcome	Social Benefits Communal Benefits Environmental Benefits Trees make life nicer. It has been shown that spending time among trees and green spaces reduces the amount of stress that we carry around with us in our daily lives. Trees give off oxygen that we need to breathe. Trees reduce the amount of storm water runoff, which reduces erosion and pollution in our waterways and may reduce the effects of flooding. Many species of wildlife depend on trees for habitat.
Impact and	The initiative received an overwhelming response, and the college plans to conduct regular follow-ups to monitor the growth of the saplings. Future plantation drives and awareness programs will be conducted to reinforce the message of sustainability and ecological responsibility. The N.S.S. unit extends gratitude to all participants and stakeholders for their invaluable support in making this drive a grand success.

Future Plans
